

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

CENTRAL FLORIDA WITCHES BALL PRESENTS SATURDAY'S SONG

CHULUOTA, FLORIDA/ The area's newest fantasy themed outdoor wedding and event venue, Isle of Valhalla, in association with Tea and Tarot Emporium & Events, is holding its inaugural Central Florida Witches Ball this October, and staging Saturday's Song: a performance that will take place during the outdoor, witch-inspired, Halloween festival. The celebration is a hybrid of the party atmosphere of a traditional Witches Ball with a DJ, dancing, and guests encouraged to attend in costume, coupled with a "renaissance faire" structure that also brings artists, vendors, food, drink, and a variety of immersive entertainment to the evening.

Saturday's Song will be an energetic and entertaining look into the world of the witches hosting the 2021 Central Florida Witches Ball, as they welcome their newest initiates from covens across the land. It will be a night to test the abilities of these apprentices, and to celebrate their induction into the Conclave... but... there are whispers of a big, bad darkness brewing in the shadows. Will the Conclave's circle remain unbroken? Will the recruits survive the challenges they'll face as they race to join this secret society of Witches? Or will Mr. Saturday, the Hoodoo Shadow Man, get the last laugh?

Saturday's Song will utilize professional actors from the Central Florida area, fun characters, song, dance, aerial acts, magic, and more, as it details the backstory of both the event and the mystical inhabitants of the festival. The production will be presented in three acts over the course of the evening, with other entertainment taking place between the acts, including a Dark Fae Forest Walking Path, a Fortune Teller's Trail with Psychic Readers and Henna Artists, the Supernatural Vendor Bazaar, Bonfire, Heavy Appetizers served until 11pm, rotating drink specials, and—of course—a DJ spinning party tunes.

This unique, outdoor Witches Ball is proud to benefit and partner with an amazing charity, Transfiguring Adoption. Transfiguring Adoption helps create ways for parents to engage with kids in their care and start conversations about difficult situations through media and play. Books, movies, songs, and other media are a great way for people to relate to one another and understand each other's feelings.
